

PUBLIC WORKS WEEK

Whereas, public works infrastructure, facilities and services are of vital importance to sustainable communities and to the health, safety and well-being of the people of Eden, North Carolina; and

Whereas, such facilities and services could not be provided without the dedicated efforts of public works professionals, engineers, managers and employees from state and local government, as well as the private sector, who are responsible for and must plan, design, build, operate, and maintain transportation, water supply, sewage and refuse disposal systems, public buildings, and other structures and facilities essential to serving our citizens; and

Whereas, it is in the public interest for citizens to understand the importance of public works and public works programs in their respective communities; and

Whereas, the City of Eden joins the American Public Works Association and other interested agencies and organizations in recognizing the contributions of public works professionals to the health, safety and welfare of North Carolina and our nation; and

Now Therefore, I, John E. Grogan, Mayor of the City of Eden, North Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 20-26, 2012, as "PUBLIC WORKS WEEK" in the City of Eden, and commend its observance to all citizens.
